Starting prices

Ford job	What raises the price	From
Cutting a Ford blade	Laser cut blades on later models	£50
Coding a key you already have	Timed PATS security wait	£60
Ford fob repair	A dead button or a cracked board	£60
Snapped key removed	Depth of the broken piece	£80
Ford unlocked	Double locking and alarm state	£85
Ford ignition barrel	Barrel rebuilt or swapped	£150
PATS or body module repair	Module coded back to the car	£150
Ford spare key	Flip key or remote, model year	£155
Ford replacement key	A worn or cracked key swapped	£155
KeyFree fob	Push button start models	£155
Transit or Transit Custom key	Van year and key style	£155
Every Ford key lost	Lost keys erased before the new one	£180

Each price is the opening figure for that job. Late night lockouts and the newest electric models sit above it, and the price for your Ford is fixed from the registration before the van sets off.

What to have ready

The registration, the Ford model and year, where the car is and whether any key still works. Keep the V5C and photo ID at the car, as ownership is checked before a key is cut, and bring every working key, because a Ford often relearns its whole key list. Lockouts are taken at any hour, and planned work is booked between 8am and 7pm, Monday to Saturday.
